

V. Travail sur la richesse lexicale

Exercice 1

1. Appointees will be given adequate training before they start work.
2. The subprime crisis had far-reaching consequences on the global economy.
3. Stiglitz's latest book was really thought-provoking.

4. Many Labour MPs stressed that this measure was detrimental to national cohesion.
5. Apple has always been praised for its well-thought-out marketing strategy.
6. Providing shelters to homeless people is an inadequate solution in the long term.
7. Many experts highlight that hybrid cars are beneficial to the environment.
8. Students decided to stage widespread demonstrations across the country.
9. Authorities have failed to provide a suitable response to the NHS deficit.
10. The implementation of CCTV provides a noteworthy example of state surveillance.

Exercise 2

1. Students who fail to comply with the rules will be suspended.
2. Same-sex marriage is sparking a huge debate in many Western countries.
3. Unemployment figures are expected to be released next week.
4. Google will introduce new changes in Gmail to improve security.
5. The French government banned vending machines in school in an effort to curb childhood obesity.
6. When it comes to immigration, it is essential to draw the line between legal and illegal aliens.
7. Sarah Palin was accused of sowing the seeds of hatred.
8. Engineers are devising new strategies to reduce greenhouse gas emissions.
9. After Hurricane Sandy hit New York City, the President issued a statement to reassure the population.
10. In Arizona, authorities have decided to enforce strict dress code for voters.

11. The USA and China narrowed their differences at the Cancun climate talks.
12. The guide was right to draw our attention to the need to protect the site.
13. It is unsure whether the newly elected President will repeal his predecessor's reform.
14. Chicago's teachers staged a huge rally in order to put an end to the strike.
15. The coalition government's NHS reform would certainly entail benefit cuts.

Exercise 3

1. Thanks to the Internet, you can keep up with all the latest developments.
2. The USA is increasingly turning into a polarized country.
3. People living near Heathrow can no longer put up with the constant noise.
4. The governor of Arizona accused the federal government of failing to come up with a lasting solution to illegal immigration.
5. Financial analysts do not expect the economy to pick up before the end of next year.
6. Student unions encouraged students to stand up for their rights.
7. In the US, shale gas should account for 35 % of energy production by 2035.
8. The fast food industry is determined to brush up its bad image.
9. The Serious Fraud Office will look into what happened.
10. The Conservative contender promised that, once elected, he would set about reforming the NHS.
11. The earlier you drop out of school, the more unlikely you are to find a good job.