

Dr Frankenstein and the research ethics committee

> Dr Frankenstein has been called to answer for his deed in front of an ethics committee. Prepare the role of Frankenstein or that of a board member.

Frankenstein must prepare to explain his motivations and justify them. He did it for the advancement of science after all...

The board members will prepare the questions they want to ask him as well as a short statement detailing the reason(s) why he was called to justify himself