

1- Introduce yourself

2- Describe and analyse the document

3- Role play situation

One of your relatives supports the National Rifle Association claiming the second Amendment to the Constitution is a pillar that can't be put into question. You're working in an elementary school that hit the headlines after a mass shooting. Speak about the situation with him/her and try to make him/her understand how serious the issue is.