

1. VOCABULARY – LEXICAL FIELD – THE MEDIA AND THE NEWS

Vocabulary to learn for next time:

Colour code:

Nouns

Adjectives

Verbs

Information and its supports

- Information (remember, the word "information" never takes an -s) => to inform
- A source
- A press article
- A press review
- A news flash => a sudden event / a scoop
- An interview => to interview someone
- An advertisement / an advert / an ad => to advertise
- Entertainment => entertaining / entertained / to entertain

- To make something public
- A newsletter
- Politics
- Daily / weekly / monthly / yearly
- Satirical news
- To investigate => an investigation => investigative journalism
- A subject / a topic / an issue
- "According to" => a reference / a quote
- To search (for) / to do research (on)

Types of media:

- A newspaper
- A television / a TV channel
- A radio
- Social media / social networks => to post / to share / to like / to scroll / to communicate
- A (news)feed
- The Internet
- A microblogging service (like X)
- A tweet
- A thread
- A publication => to publish
- A debate => to debate / to argue / to discuss

Material:

- A microphone
- A news station
- A live stream => to livestream
- A live broadcast => to broadcast

People:

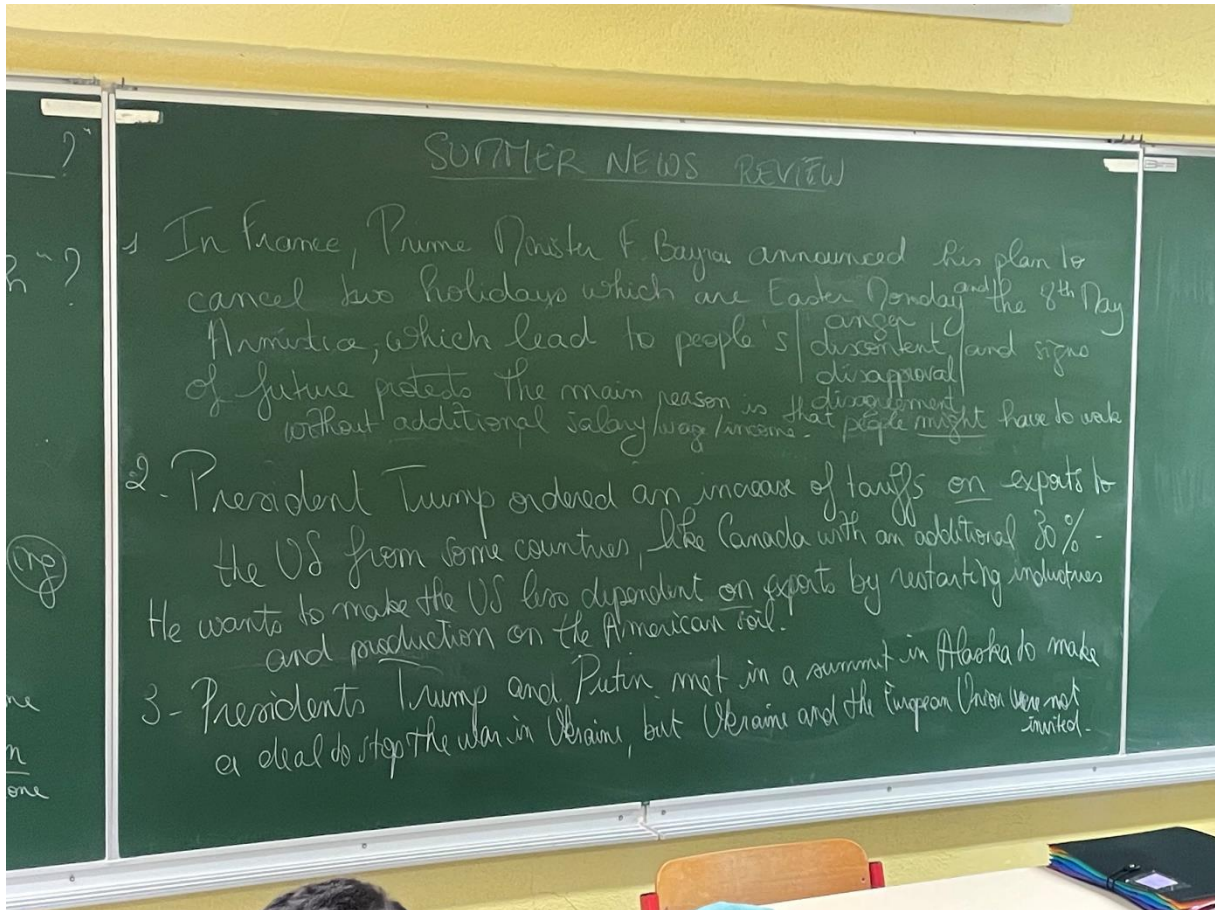

- A photographer => a photograph
- A paparazzi
- A cameraman => to record
- A journalist / a reporter => to report (on something)
- A news anchor / an anchorman => to present / to host
- A commentator
- A host / a guest

Misinformation:

- A private information
- A leak
- A fake news
- Misinformation => to misinform / to lie / to deceive / to mislead
- A rumour
- A conspiracy theory => to spread a conspiracy theory / to spread rumours
- Plagiarism => to plagiarize

- Corruption => to corrupt

2. SUMMER NEWS REVIEW – STUDENTS' VERSION

1. In France, Prime Minister François Bayrou announced his plan to cancel two holidays which are Easter Monday and the 8th May Armistice, which led to people's anger / discontent / disapproval / disagreement, and signs of future protests. The main reason is that people might have to work without additional salary / wage / income.
2. President Trump ordered an increase of tariffs on exports to the US from some countries, like Canada with an additional 30%. He wants to make the US less dependent on exports by restarting industries and production on the American soil.
3. Presidents Trump and Putin met in a summit in Alaska to make a deal to stop the war in Ukraine, but Ukraine and the European Union were not invited.

SCH 50 CLASS 1

"What is the English for _____?"

"How do you say _____ in English?"

JEWS REVIEW = Students' custom.

JEWS REVIEW = Study a text and prepare an oral presentation (part 1).

to grant

Russia
[11.2 § 2]

to meet / met / ^{met}
a (public) holiday
holidays

a tariff

to import
≠ to export
an import ≠ an export

to cancel

to plan on V-ing

Easter

to pressure someone

to put pressure on someone

1. In f
can
An
of

2. Pres
the
He want

3. Pres
a